KNOWLEDGE CAPITAL GROUP PROMOTES TWO TEAM MEMBERS

CHARLESTON, Jan. 7, 2021 – Knowledge Capital Group [KCG] is pleased to announce the promotion of two members of their team - Chrissie Hamilton to Senior Consultant, and Misty Antonacci to Analyst.

“2020 was a challenging year, and we are grateful for our clients, strategic partners, and team members for their continued engagement and resilience during this unprecedented time.” Anthony Powell, KCG’s Managing Director stated. “We are excited for a brighter 2021 and excited to kick-off the new year announcing these two well-earned promotions.”

In her new role as Senior Consultant, Hamilton will serve as an integral member of KCG’s healthcare consulting team, helping lead strategy engagements and client teams. Hamilton joined KCG in August of 2018 and has taken part in some notable projects, including the redesign of a client’s process and structure for completing its operating budget and the development of a strategic investment fund for a health system to invest in core initiatives and programs.

Hamilton earned an MBA from the Darden School of Business at the University of Virginia and a BS in Business Administration from Kenan-Flagler Business School at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Antonacci began her role at KCG through an internship in the Fall of 2018 as she completed her undergraduate studies. She joined the team full time in June of 2019 and since that time has supported the consulting team on a variety of client projects and facilitates internal firm operations. In her new role as an Analyst, Antonacci will take on more client facing work and project analytics.

Antonacci graduated magna cum laude from the Honors College at the College of Charleston with a BS in Mathematics and a minor in Women's and Gender Studies.
