LAUREN OLLIS PROMOTED TO SENIOR ANALYST AT KNOWLEDGE CAPITAL GROUP

CHARLESTON, Jul. 19, 2024 – Knowledge Capital Group (KCG), is pleased to announce the promotion of Lauren Ollis to Senior Analyst.

Ollis joined KCG in Fall 2020 and has since become an integral part of the team through her support on key client engagements and internal firm operations. In her new role as a Senior Analyst, Lauren will take on more client-facing work to help drive project success and value.

“I couldn’t be prouder of Lauren,” Tony Powell, Managing Director stated. “She first joined KCG as an Intern in 2020 [she was a Junior at the College of Charleston] and jumped in with both feet. She of course did the usual internship activities, however rapidly migrated to wanting to support client work. Her drive, determination, and confidence made it an easy decision for us to offer her full-time employment. Now, in her second year at KCG full-time, she is supporting mostly client-facing engagements and wholeheartedly deserves the promotion to Sr. Analyst.”

Ollis earned a BS in International Business at the College of Charleston where she graduated summa cum laude from the Honors College.
